Of Paducah Honeymoon Couple

Warrant Issued In Murder Case

PASS CHRISTIAN, Miss. (AP) — A warrant has been issued for a suspect in the slayings of a Paducah couple, Joseph M. Meyer, 24, and his wife Theresa, 21, who were murdered on their honeymoon in Mississippi.

"We're having to hold up on the name of the suspect," said Craig Monroe, chief investigator for the Harrison County Mississippi sheriff's department. He said Harrison Circuit Judge Ruble Griffin issued the warrant Friday, charging the suspect with two counts of murder.

The decomposed bodies of the couple were found July 31 near a dead-end road north of Interstate 10 in Harrison County. A search was launched for a man who was reportedly seen driving the couple's car.

The Meyers were married in Paducah July 28 and had called their parents from a Biloxi motel July 29 to report they had decided to continue on to New Orleans.

Meyer was found with his hands and feet tied and the partially-clothed body of his wife was on top of him, police said. It was not determined whether Theresa Meyer had been raped, Monroe said.

The condition of the bodies made it impossible initially to determine the exact cause of death, Monroe said. However, autopsies indicated "they had both been shot."

"The male victim had been shot once behind the head and the female victim twice in the same manner," Monroe said.

Dark Fired Directors Express Concern On Tobacco Problems

The Board of Directors of the Western Dark Fired Tobacco Growers Association met recently and expressed concern over the problems related to the curing of dark-fired tobacco following a wet and unusual season.

Association manager, Holmes Ellis, stated that growers faced more problems in curing this year and urged everyone to use more than the usual care in wilting and housing tobacco to avoid sweating and houseburn. Both of these conditions lower the quality and price of tobacco.

Ellis said that the extra care given to tobacco in scaffolding, wilting and housing would result in better prices for the leaf.

In other action the board authorized manager Ellis to accept applications for the position of assistant manager in training through September 3, 1979. After that time the board will select an assistant manager to train for the position of manager of the association.

Ellis has announced his intentions to retire in March of 1981. If the applicant chosen is satisfactory in performance, he would then be named to succeed Ellis.

Ellis stated that it was his intention to see the transition period as a smooth operation in order to render full service to the members and maintain the favorable position that is currently enjoyed by the association in the world market.

Applications may be left at the Association offices at 206 Maple Street, Murray, Ky., or mailed to P.O. Box 312, Murray, Ky.

Murder Charge Amended

Coomer Changes Plea To Guilty

William W. Coomer, 29, of Jonesboro, Ark., changed his not guilty plea to guilty to the amended charge of reckless homicide today shortly after his trial for the Nov. 4, 1978, shooting death of Lawrence Spinks began. Coomer had been charged with murder.

Commonwealth Attorney Ron Christopher recommended the maximum sentence of five years imprisonment on the charge. However, he said he would not oppose a probation motion filed by Coomer's attorney provided that the probation period is not less than two years and that Coomer does not reside in the state of Kentucky during that time.

Spinks, 24, of J & J Apartments,

Murray, was shot three times in the back of the head, lower neck and lower back with a .22 caliber pistol. The shooting occurred at Spinks' former wife's trailer at Green Acres Trailer Court. He died at Western Baptist Hospital in Paducah about 12 hours after the early morning shooting. Spinks was the ex-husband of Coomer's sister, Ladoka.

Following the shooting, Murray City Police said that Coomer told them that Spinks had threatened him with a pair of brass knuckles. The police had been called to the trailer earlier to quell a disturbance and had persuaded Spinks to leave. The shooting occurred when he later returned to the trailer.

Parks Board Will Notify Depot Mover; Alternatives Discussed

Members of the Murray-Calloway County Parks Board voted Sunday to notify M. C. Ruggles House Moving Contractors of Benton that the board is no longer interested in moving the old L & N Railroad depot to the park.

Ruggles contracted with the board for $7,000 to move the depot by Nov. 30, 1978. Although the company has done preliminary work on cutting the 37-by-200 foot depot into three sections to facilitate moving, it still remains on its original site on Railroad Avenue. The foundation for the depot relocation has been laid at the park.

A Bureau of Outdoor Recreation matching grant of $24,000 had been obtained to move the depot, however, this grant expires Dec. 31, 1979.

In addition, parks board representatives will meet with a delegation of the Murray-Calloway County Community Theatre to discuss alternatives available for the establishment of a permanent indoor park facility which could be utilized by various community organizations. The Community Theatre is the organization that was primarily interested in the use of the facility.

It was noted that members of the parks board will meet with the budget committee of the Murray Common Council today to discuss the park's present budget needs.

The meeting followed the annual picnic for all full-time park employees and parks board members and their families. After the dinner, board chairman Jean Blankenship presented a plaque to Nell McCuiston, widow of Chester McCuiston, recognizing his service on the board. McCuiston was a member of the board until his death on June 20. Mrs. Florence Hudspeth has been named to fill McCuiston's term which expires Nov. 15.

Windows Rattled By Early Morning Quake

By The Associated Press

A small, pre-dawn earthquake centered in Tennessee rattled windows, but apparently caused no damage in portions of three Southeastern states, the U.S. Geological Survey reported today.

The tremor registered 3.7 on the Richter scale and was reported felt widely in southeast Tennessee, southwest North Carolina and north Georgia, including Atlanta, the USGS said.

The survey's National Earthquake Information Service at Golden, Colo., said the quake was centered about 50 miles northeast of Chattanooga—in the proximity of McMinn County.

It occurred at 1:19 a.m., EDT, in a seismic area where small earthquakes are common, the center said. The quake lasted from three to five seconds, although there were some reports of up to 10 seconds, the National Weather Service said.

A spokesman at the McMinn County sheriff's office said he received a dozen telephone calls after the tremor was felt. A dispatcher for the neighboring Bradley County sheriff's office, however, estimated she received 100 calls after the quake.

State Civil Defense officials in Nashville said there were no immediate reports of property damage or persons injured from the quake.

"It was really mild. Not even a window was broken, although some were rattled," said Danny Newton, Civil Defense operations officer.

The Richter scale is a measure of ground motion as recorded on seismographs. Every increase of one number means a tenfold increase in magnitude. Thus a reading of 7.5 reflects a quake 10 times stronger than one of 6.5.

An earthquake of 3.5 can cause slight damage in populated areas. A 7 reading is a major earthquake, capable of widespread heavy damage. The 1906 San Francisco earthquake, which occurred before the Richter scale was devised, has been estimated at 8.3 on the Richter scale.

All-India Radio Reports About 1,000 Killed From Water Released By Dam

By GENE KRAMER
Associated Press Writer

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — All-India Radio reported today that about 1,000 persons were killed following the collapse of a dam in west India that unleashed a wall of water nearly 20 feet high on the town of Morvi and buried it in mud.

"I am deeply shocked at the enormous loss of precious lives and destruction of property caused by the sudden floods," Prime Minister Charan Singh said in a message to the chief minister of Gujarat state, Babubhai Patel.

Singh sent Agriculture Minister Braham Perkash to Morvi to survey the flood damage.

Earlier a former mayor of the town said he feared the death toll would run as high as 5,000. That would have made it the world's worst dam disaster, more than double the previous record toll of 2,300 at Belluno, in northeast Italy, in 1962.

Troops were ordered to the town 300 miles northwest of Bombay to help dig out the bodies and care for the survivors, but they were delayed by highways and rail lines washed out by the weeks of monsoon rains that weakened the dam.

Indian news agencies reported that the downpours swelled the Machu River until it flooded over the top of one dam and collapsed an earth dam below it. The dam break sent a flash flood down Morvi, four miles downstream, late Saturday while most of the 60,000 people of the town were asleep.

The flood destroyed the city's telephone exchange, and word of the tragedy did not get out until Sunday morning. The waters drained off quickly, and the first reporters to reach the city said parts of it were blanketed by mud that reached the second floors of some buildings.

Keshubhai Patel, the agricultural minister of Gujarat state, said about 5,000 houses were destroyed or badly damaged.

At Least Two Dead After Roof Collapses

ROSEMONT, Ill. (AP) — The roof of a multi-purpose stadium under construction near O'Hare International Airport collapsed today moments after a plane thundered overhead, witnesses said. Officials said at least two people, and possibly five, were killed.

Spokesmen for the architect and the Federal Aviation Administration said it was too early to speculate on whether the plane had anything to do with the collapse.

The roof of the four-story stadium, designed to seat 19,400 people, caved in about 8:30 a.m. About 100 workmen were reportedly at the scene.

A spokesman for one hospital said it was told to expect five dead. Leyden Township Fire Department officials said they had confirmed between two and five people dead.

Police said some construction workers were trapped in the wreckage but later freed.

One unidentified witness, interviewed by television station WBBM, said the stadium started shaking as a plane roared overhead. "And just like dominoes, everything went down," he said.

Neal Callahan, a spokesman for the Federal Aviation Administration, said planes fly "just a couple hundred feet" over the site when runway 22-Right is being used at O'Hare, as it probably was today.

Fred Schroeder, an architect with the firm of Anthony R. Rossi, which designed the stadium, said "it's very wild and very premature" to speculate on whether the plane could have triggered the collapse of the roof.

Rescue crews from Chicago and seven suburban communities converged on the stadium site, northwest of Chicago near the giant airport.

Warren Nelson, spokesman for Ressurrection Hospital in northwest Chicago, said he had been told to expect five dead. "We've been notified we can expect five DOA (dead on arrival)," he said.

Nelson said the hospital had treated six injured workers, one of whom told him there were well over 100 men working at the site.

Officials at Lutheran General Hospital in nearby Park Ridge said three workers had been brought in for treatment.

Robert Andrews, assistant manager at the nearby Sheraton O'Hare Hotel, said the entire roof of the stadium had fallen in.

"The whole roof fell in at the center and broke off from the supports to the concrete wall," he said.

Andrews said the curved roof was partially completed with wood panels covering the southwest end of the building. Most of the roof was supported by wooden beams at the time of the collapse, he said.

The stadium, which was to have opened in mid-December, was designed for sporting events, circuses and business meetings.

Callahan said he had never heard of airplane turbulence causing any destruction on the ground.

"Large jets do give off minor tornadoes, as we call them," he said, and that can cause problems for smaller planes following larger jets. He said a DC-9 jetliner flipped over and crashed in Texas several years ago because of such turbulence.

He said the stadium is 65 feet high but that the original plans called for a taller structure. He said building representative met with FAA officials in 1973 about the planned size and location of the building.

Congressional Economists Make Inflation Predictions

By JIM LUTHER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional economists, although predicting that inflation likely will cool to 6.2 percent a year in the 1980s, hold out the prospect that it could seriously worsen and that unemployment could skyrocket unless American factories and workers boost their productivity.

In its unanimous midyear report issued Sunday, the Joint Economic Committee said lagging productivity is the economy's central problem.

"And the key to reviving the economy, the panel said, lies in boosting productivity through tax incentives for savings and investment and better training of disadvantaged workers.

By implication, the committee endorsed across-the-board tax reductions next year. Noting that consumer purchasing power has been sapped by higher Social Security taxes and inflation's nudging of workers into higher income-tax brackets, the report stated: "Whether the economy moves back on the road to recovery in 1980 will depend in large measure on policy choices made late this year and early next."

The committee's report on the status of the economy at midyear was basically a recitation of the widespread view that the nation is in for another period of "stagflation"—inflation is unlikely to improve over the next several months while unemployment will increase as the recession deepens.

Staff economists, using widely held assumptions about the economy, attempted to project the path of inflation and unemployment in the 1980s along several different hypothetical paths.

In the middle-of-the-road case, the report assumed Congress will grant savings and investments incentives necessary to increase productivity significantly, that energy supplies will continue without interruption as dependence on foreign oil lessens, that personal income taxes will be cut periodically to offset inflation and that Social Security taxes will continue rising on schedule.

Those assumptions would result in an inflation of consumer prices (now rising by more than 13 percent annually) of 6.2 percent a year through the 1980s. By comparison, inflation in the 1970s has averaged 6.9 percent a year.

Coal Sessions At Denmark

Robert L. Major, son of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Major of Murray, recently attended sessions of the World Coal Study which met at the Scanticon Conference Center, Aarhus, Denmark. Major is manager of the Market Research for AMAX Inc., a coal producer.

The World Coal Study was organized by Prof. Carroll L. Wilson of MIT School of Engineering. It is a non-governmental, international project involving about 50 individuals from 15 major coal importing or exporting countries.

An objective of the World Coal Study is to examine the future needs for coal in the total energy system and to assess the prospects for expanding world coal production. A purpose of the study is to highlight the period of transition when coal must begin to replace oil and gas and the quantities of coal that are likely to be required.

Major holds a degree in geology from Princeton University and a Master's degree from Pennsylvania State University.

HEALTH

Changes with age

Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I have high blood pressure and hardening of the arteries. I've had cataracts removed from both eyes.

I got new glasses just a few months ago and in that short time my vision has worsened. I also have trouble remembering names. For the past year or two, I have become forgetful and somewhat confused.

Is there anything I can do to retard the hardening of the arteries? Could hardening of the arteries cause me to lose my mind altogether and become completely confused later on?

I'm 77 and know these conditions are common with older folks.

DEAR READER — First, about eyes. Vision depends on more than the lens in the eye. Cataracts involve the developing of an opacity in the lens of the eye itself. When the opacity becomes sufficient to obstruct light rays entering the eyes, it can cause blindness. When a cataract is mature or causing significant difficulty in seeing, the lens can be removed as it was in your case.

The problem is you can also have changes in the retina at the back of the eye. This is the screen where the visual images are projected by the lens. The retinal screen can be affected by circulation to the eye and you'll have to depend on your eye doctor's evaluation of your status. If the retina has too many changes in it, then the improvement that you might expect from cataract surgery doesn't occur.

I am sending you The Health Letter number 13-6 on Cataracts. Other readers who want this information can send 75 cents in check or coin with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

Changes in the arteries can lead to changes in brain cells. The brain cell changes can also occur without significant changes in circulation. We have a lot yet to learn about this area. We don't have any really good answers for most of these cases. In some instances, if you can identify a circulation problem in the arteries of the neck, surgery can be used to improve circulation.

About the only thing I can offer in that department is to have an evaluation by a neurologist to make certain that you don't have some underlying medical problem that can be corrected. If the problem really is the changes in brain cells often seen with age, limited things can be done. There are medicines that help to relieve associated anxiety and depression.

It's important in such instances to remain active, have goals and try to maintain your interest in life. It also helps to stay in the same surroundings if at all possible. Familiar objects and surroundings seem to help reinforce the functions of the brain and enable the person to avoid some confusion.

Some of these problems are not just something that happens in old age. Some may be from diseases that have not been fully defined yet. You see them occurring in people in their early 50s and sometimes even before that. On the other hand, you see people living to well past 90 and continuing to be as sharp as a razor with all of their mental facilities intact.

Review Your Clues Before You Accuse

By Abigail Van Buren
1979 by Chicago Tribune N.Y. News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: This is in reference to STUMPED, who discovered that her turquoise and silver ring was missing from the jewelry box on her dressing table. (It wasn't expensive but had sentimental value.) She asked if she should question the lady who had come to dinner that evening. (After dinner, the guest asked to lie down for a few minutes.) You advised STUMPED not to approach the guest on the chance that she could be mistaken. I disagree with you, Abby.

Because their husbands worked together doesn't mean the lady was honest. I know the type. I'm pretty sure she asked to lie down because she wanted to snoop in the bedroom and see what she could pick up.

You should have advised STUMPED to call the lady and tell her the ring was missing, and ask if she happened to see it.

CAUTIOUS

DEAR CAUTIOUS: I intuitively feel that accusations should not be made without concrete evidence. Please read on:

DEAR ABBY: Thank you for advising STUMPED not to accuse the lady she suspected of taking her ring just because she had napped in the room where it was.

I still get a sick feeling in the pit of my stomach when I recall an incident that happened to me 43 years ago.

When I was 11, I went to a birthday party at the home of a classmate I'll call Johnny.

The following day Johnny's parents came to our house to talk to me and my parents about a gold pocket watch on a chain that was missing from the drawer in the master bedroom. They were sure it was there before the party, and it wasn't there afterward, and someone said they saw me go into that bedroom.

It's true I did go into that room, but only to use the bathroom because the other one was being used.

I was so hurt and upset at the accusation that my face turned beet red and I stuttered and stammered and burst into tears as I proclaimed my innocence.

I remember the woman saying, "I can always tell when someone is lying, and if ever saw the look of guilt on a face, that boy is guilty!"

Thank God my parents believed me and stood up for me. Even though I was innocent I hated to go to school the next day because I knew all the kids would be talking about me.

A few days later, Johnny told me that the "lost" watch and chain had been found! It seems his little sister had taken it to play with.

REMEMBERS IT WELL

DEAR ABBY: I hope STUMPED takes your advice in regard to the missing ring.

I am a home health aide who was accused of taking "four beautiful linen napkins." I was told emphatically, "I remember seeing them on the hall table while you were here, and after you left, they were missing."

Abby, it was an awful feeling to be unjustly accused. I reported the incident to my office and never returned to that house. Two months later, my accuser phoned my office to say she had found the missing napkins in the ironing board that pushes up into the wall! She was advised to call me and apologize, which she did.

I'm glad she made those calls because I learned that she died two weeks later.

Should Corporation Be Allowed To Fail?

NEW YORK (AP) — To be or not to be, that is the question... whether it's wiser economically to let a weakened corporation fail or support it with government subsidies or loan guarantees?

To let Chrysler Corp. fail, say its supporters, would mean a sea of troubles for all Americans. For the federal government to provide any extraordinary aid to Chrysler, say others, will mean the very same.

Already a sea has engulfed

Funny, Funny World

Ethel Merman's taste in food is for the most part confined to simple American fare, she reveals in "Merman: An Autobiography," written with George Eells.

"One night in New York, my date took me to dinner at a noted French restaurant. I bypassed the boeuf florentine and other specialties and asked whether they served chopped steak. The captain said it could be arranged.

"It must have taken some arrangement. When the bill came, my eye happened to spot the price. I said to my date:

"Not that it makes any difference, but what could have been in that chopped steak that made it $14.00?"

"He called over the captain, who pointed out that it was sirloin.

"For $14?" I asked.

"We had to chop it," he explained."

Americans, a sea of questions that must be answered, because what happens to Chrysler could be the answer to what happens to similarly stricken companies in years to come. And that involves the political and economic systems under which we'll live.

Though no other giant companies are now believed to be in such dire straits, some of them conceivably could fall into difficulties similar to those that beset Chrysler.

Such companies are large, "mature," slow-growing; they often carry a baggage of executive bureaucracy, inefficient plants, and debt. In some instances they are complacent; in others they are fighting frantically and often futilely.

Chrysler Corp., the nation's 10th largest manufacturing corporation, one of the most important defense contractors, employer of more than 250,000 workers, has been hemorrhaging financially. It could die.

To avert this fate, the company has sought a $1 billion advance against federal income taxes. The Carter administration has indicated instead that it might guarantee up to $750 million in private loans.

And so the questions: Isn't it the American way to permit corporations a profit as the reward for efficiency, and to allow them to die when their lack of competitiveness causes them to lose money?

If the government saves Chrysler, won't it be at odds with its own goals to reduce inflation by making industry more productive? Shouldn't Chrysler be permitted to die to make room for efficient competition?

Bible Thought

I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. John 10:11.

Just as the shepherd leads his flock and provides for their needs, so Jesus provides for our spiritual needs. He gave even His life for us.

Washington Today

Guessing Game Played In Capital

WASHINGTON (AP) — There is a guessing game played from time to time on quiet days in the nation's capital that always begins with the same question: "Whatever happened to Fritz Mondale?"

The question is once again in fashion, stemming from the vice president's disappearing act while Carter was taking his Cabinet apart and putting it back together again.

It is a game the vice president's staff does not enjoy playing.

Between late May and mid-July, the

By MARIA BRADEN
Associated Press Writer

vice president concentrated almost exclusively on the administration's public efforts to win support for the strategic arms limitation treaty.

The highlight of that campaign, planned several weeks in advance, was a cross-country trip that had Mondale speaking about the treaty before well-known forums. It happened to come the week the Cabinet fell.

Was Mondale hiding? Was he dodging reporters?

Al Eisele, Mondale's press secretary, responds that during the week on the road, which ended with a hastily scheduled trip to Switzerland to address a U.N. conference on Indo-Chinese refugees, the vice president:

- Held seven press conferences;
- Gave seven speeches;
- Met with four editorial boards;
- Took part in 12 television interviews, and
- Spent 30 minutes on a public affairs television show in Portland, Ore.

During the news conferences, the vice president was asked repeatedly about the shakeup going on in Washington.

He quickly developed a standard response. He was simply reluctant to comment on the inner workings of the administration and felt that it was best that the president make the changes he saw fit.

"The fact that he was out of town that week is purely coincidental," Eisele said. "I don't feel defensive about it and neither does he."

However, Mondale's value to Carter, and the vice president's role in the administration, is enhanced by his accessibility to the president. He and others have often said that Mondale's most important asset is that he can sit down privately with Carter to hash out the administration's problems.

While he was out of town, he reportedly conferred a number of times by telephone with the president, but such talks are not the same as when they are held in the quiet confines of the president's Oval Office or his informal study overlooking a shaded patio.

For the record, Eisele states, as he has each time questions are raised about new twists in the Mondale-Carter relationship, that the president "continues to enjoy the same kind of close, personal relationship with the vice president" as he always has.

Mondale has always been reluctant to advertise details of that relationship, preferring instead to state only that he feels his value as a behind-the-scenes adviser would be weakened if he publicized the counsel he gives Carter.

HEARTLINE

Heartline is a service for senior citizens. Its purpose is to answer questions and solve problems - fast. If you have a question or a problem not answered in these columns, write Heartline, 114 East Dayton Street, West Alexandria, Ohio 45381. You will receive a prompt reply, but you must include a stamped, self-addressed envelope. The most useful replies will be printed in this column.

HEARTLINE: I have just turned 65 years old and I am now on Medicare. Since I am new to this program, there are quite a few things I do not understand about it. I have read about doctors "accepting assignment" under Medicare. Can you tell me what this means and how it affects me? — P.C.

When a doctor accepts assignment, it simply means that he or she will accept whatever Medicare pays as 80 percent of the bill and will charge you only 20 percent of what Medicare says is reasonable. It is up to your doctor as to whether or not he or she will accept assignment. The only way to find out is to ask. Remember, just because your doctor accepts assignment on one claim does not necessarily mean that he will accept it on the next one. Because what Medicare considers as the reasonable charge for a service is usually only 40 to 50 percent of the doctor's actual charges, most doctors do not accept assignment.

By JAMES GERSTENZANG
Associated Press Writer

For people who are now (or soon will be) on Medicare, Heartline has available our 1979 guide to Medicare which was recently revised to take into consideration changes in Medicare deductibles and premiums enacted in July. To order this complete up-to-date explanation of the Medicare program, send $1.75 to Medicare Guidebook, 114 East Dayton St., West Alexandria, Ohio 45381.

HEARTLINE: My husband has retired from the railroad with 28 years of service. How old must I be to receive a wife's benefit? — G.R.

If he retired after 1974 and is at least age 62, you can get a reduced spouse annuity at age 62, or a full annuity at age 65 or at any age if you have a minor or disabled child in your care.

HEARTLINE: I have a chance to start on a group health insurance policy where I work. I have always had my own private health insurance. Can you tell me what advantages there would be in group health insurance? — N.S.

There are many advantages to having group health insurance through your employer. Here are four:

1. Premiums are lower because insurance companies can administer group plans more economically.
2. The employer or other group policyholder often pays part or all of the premium.
3. Payroll deduction is usually available for paying your portion of the premium in the case of an employer-employee relationship.

4. Individuals are eligible for group protection regardless of physical condition. (Normally there must be 10 or more persons involved before this is true.)

For information on all types of health insurance and Medicare supplements, we offer Heartline's Guide to Health Insurance. To order, send $1.75 to Heartline's Guide to Health Insurance, P.O. Box 11934, Chicago, Ill. 60611.

HEARTLINE: My mother was in the hospital and she had to have blood given to her. Can you tell me if Medicare will cover this? — R.P.

Medicare Part "B" medical insurance will not pay for the first three pints of blood, but will pay 80 percent of the reasonable charges for any blood above the first three pints.

The Story Of Calloway County

1822-1976 By Dorothy and Kerby Jennings

Copyright, 1978

Before digressing on the court house bond issue, it is appropriate to review the installation of the water works system in Murray which had been authorized by an election held the previous year. Work began on the water tank, a block northeast of the town square, on April 30 after a friendly suit had been filed with the Court of Appeals approving the validity of the bond issue. Tank parts were hoisted 100 feet in the air, with a capacity of 70,000 gallons, serving water lines on Main, Poplar, 4th and a portion of Olive streets in addition to 47 fire hydrants. An old fashion steam engine pulled a steel plow for water mains through the crust of the graveled streets. The balance of the water main lines were dug with pick and shovel in the hands of $1.50 a day laborers. The progress played havoc with town streets following the fall rains when the settling process got underway, particularly to the dozen new cars in town. By late fall the job was completed, tank, mains and wells supplying fresh water, approved by the State Board of Health, wending its way to the few subscribers able to patronize the new company operated by the city government—the first instance of municipal ownership for the light company had run into difficulties in acquiring Dr. Crawford's plant. Not many homes, however, were able to afford a single outdoor water hydrant on lawns for domestic use. This was 1912.

The public drinking cup was banned in Murray June 12, 1912, and in a display of utmost generosity the school board installed eight water fountains in the school house. Every child in that school marvelled at the convenience. Former students had made exacting use of four tin cups attached to wires hanging on the "slop barrel" at the east entrance of the building, filled to the brim, morning, recess and noon, by "Uncle Tom" Gardner from the school well at "the north entrance. A private drinking cup was considered sissy stuff and the source of ridicule from the broganders.

Not to be outclassed by the Murray board of education, the fiscal court authorized a public fountain on the north side of the square. The huge iron structure provided a watering pool for livestock in addition to a water fountain for humanity. An added restriction forbade the parking of wagons within 30 feet of the fountain, thus establishing the first no parking rule within the county. Electric poles, however, could not be used as hitching posts. A stern warning was tacked on each upright "No Hitching To This Post."

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Monday, Aug. 13, the 225th day of 1979. There are 140 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1521; the Spanish conqueror, Hernando Cortez, captured Mexico City from the Aztecs.

On this date:

In 1688, King William's War began when Indians attacked North Yarmouth, Maine.

In 1848, the American flag was raised in Los Angeles.

In 1965, 2,000 heavily armed National Guardsmen moved into Los Angeles ghetto areas to quell black rioting.

In 1970, consumer advocate Ralph Nader got $425,000 from General Motors in an out-of-court settlement of an invasion of privacy lawsuit.

Ten years ago: President Richard Nixon bestowed the nation's highest civilian award, the Medal of Freedom, on Apollo XI astronauts Neil Armstrong, Edwin Aldrin and Michael Collins after the first moon landing.

Five years ago: The U.S. Senate voted against advance payments of up to $100 million to the Grumman Aerospace Corporation to continue production of the F-14 fighter plane for the Navy.

One year ago: President Carter signed the American Indian Religious Freedom Act, to protect the right of Indians to worship in traditional ways.

Today's birthdays: Cuba's Premier Fidel Castro is 53 years old. Movie director Alfred Hitchcock is 80. Former movie star Gene Raymond is 71.

Thought for today: Too bad you can't invest in taxes. They are the only thing sure to go up — anonymous.

Vaccinations Are Necessary

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Perhaps nowhere is that old adage more applicable than in the case of childhood vaccinations.

Immunizing a school-age child not only saves dollars that otherwise would go for medical treatment, but also prevents a possible tragedy.

It doesn't cost anything but time to take a child to the local health department for the required shots.

State law says that children must show proof of immunization against several childhood diseases before they are admitted to school, but until last year the law was largely ignored.

Then state health officials began a campaign to get every Kentucky school child immunized, and most local school officials responded by refusing to admit children until they produced proof that they had been vaccinated.

The campaign resulted in a dramatic increase in immunizations, and school officials are likely to take the same stern measures this year.

The most deadly childhood diseases, for which protection is available at no charge at county health departments, are polio, measles (rubeola), German measles (rubella), diphtheria, pertussis (whooping cough), and tetanus.

Vaccines against the latter three are combined in one shot.

Because the mass immunization drives of the 1960s and early 1970s have all but wiped out epidemics, many of today's young parents have never seen a case of polio, and many believe that the disease has been eradicated.

However, polio outbreaks continue, leaving several children crippled each year.

Measles are far more serious than the familiar red spots suggest. Complications include pneumonia and inflammation of the brain, which can lead to deafness and blindness.

German measles can be so mild in children that they go unnoticed or undiagnosed. However, when the disease infects expectant mothers in early pregnancy, it can cause congenital heart disease and other defects in the unborn child.

Diphtheria can result in paralysis, heart failure and death if untreated.

Pertussis, often called whooping cough, is associated with complications that include convulsions, collapse of the lungs and brain damage. Tetanus occurs when infected spores enter the body through a deep, dirty wound. It leads to muscle stiffness, spasms, convulsions, and in many cases death.

Maurice Humphrey To Attend Soil Conservation Meet

OTTAWA, ONTARIO — Maurice Humphrey was among the more than 1,800 people attending the 34th annual meeting of the Soil Conservation Society of America being held July 29 and Aug. 1.

The theme of the meeting was "Resource - Constrained Economies: The North American Dilemma."

Activities began on a Sunday with a reception.

Three international speakers delivered keynote addresses on Monday morning. Yves Cathlinaud, Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, Paris, France; Jane Yarn, a member of the President's Council on Environmental Quality,

Washington, D.C.; and Kenneth Hare, Institute for Environmental Studies, University of Toronto, spoke on resource constraints from the view of the U.S., Canada, and Europe.

Some 30 other speakers during the three-day meeting discussed ways of dealing with constraints placed on the limited natural resources. An awards banquet concluded the meeting on Wednesday evening.

The Society is a professional association of natural resource conservationists dedicated to advancing the science and art of good land use. It has more than 15,000 members in the United States, Canada, and more than 80 other countries.

Veal - Ham Rolls
2 pounds veal cutlets, cut 1/4 inch thick
6 slices "boiled" ham
3 tablespoons cooking fat
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed mushroom soup
1/2 cup milk
1/4 teaspoon marjoram

Cut meat into 6 pieces. Place a slice of ham on each piece of veal and roll up like a jelly roll. Fasten with small wooden picks or tie with string. Brown rolls in fat. Pour off drippings. Sprinkle salt and pepper over rolls. Mix the soup, milk and marjoram. Pour over rolls. Cover tightly and cook slowly 45 minutes or until tender. Thicken sauce with flour, if necessary, and serve with veal rolls. Remove rolls to warm platter and remove picks or string. 6 servings.

Couple Chosen Outstanding Young Dairymen At Meeting

Larry and Marilyn McKinney of Farmington Route 1, Calloway County, were named "Outstanding Young Dairymen" couple at the annual meeting held July 26 of the Young Dairymen Club of Paducah Division, Inc., Paducah Division, the dairy farmer cooperative covering Western Kentucky, Western Tennessee, and Southeast Missouri.

The McKinneys were chosen on the basis of establishment in dairying and progress made, over-all dairy farm operations, community involvement and leadership, and the knowledge and understanding of their cooperative and milk marketing.

They have been dairying for 10 years and are presently milking 57 Holstein cows on their 200 acre farm in Calloway County. They have served on the Calloway County Dairy Council, the June Dairy Month Committee, are active in 4-H work, and are very supportive of the Paducah Young Dairymen Club and its promotional activities. Mrs. McKinney, the former Marilyn Parrish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Cleve Parrish, has also served as an officer of the First District Ada's Club.

The McKinneys said they are strong believers in cooperative marketing and believe in supporting their cooperative through participation in its activities.

If you don't keep your food freezer full, you are paying to cool empty space. But don't overload your freezer with unfrozen food, advise Extension food specialists with UK's College of Agriculture. This slows down the freezing rate and foods that freeze too slowly may lose quality. Set the freezer at zero degrees F or lower.

They also said they feel that a good advertising program is of the utmost importance.

As the winning couple, Mr. and Mrs. McKinney will represent their club at the annual meeting of the cooperative to be held in Atlanta, Ga., in December, and will compete with nine other young couples from the Southeast for the top honors. They have two children, Troy Dwan, 9, and Mitzi Faye, 5.

Denise and Denise Wilson, Fancy Farm Route 2, Carlisle County were runners-up in the contest. They have been dairying for five years in partnership and have been active in the Young Dairymen Club as well as other promotional activities. They have three children, Jennifer, 5, Jeffrey, 3, and Wesley, 1.

The 1978 "Outstanding Young Dairymen" couple was Kieth and Katie Letterman of Calloway County.

House Swapping Idea May Solve Problem Of Fighting Increased Vacation Costs

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer

If this summer's vacation costs have got you hot under the collar, now may be time to think about saving money next year by house swapping.

The idea is simple: You trade your home for someone else's. Both families save on hotel and restaurant bills; both have an opportunity to learn what life is really like in the area they are visiting.

Some swaps cover living quarters only, while others include extras like an automobile, swimming pool, boat or even maid service.

Most swaps are arranged through vacation services which publish directories of would-be traders. The directories include the names of people who want to exchange homes, along with a description of the house or apartment, the location and the dates it will be available.

Copies of the directory are mailed to everyone who has listed a home. Depending on the exchange service, you may also be able to subscribe to the directory without listing your own residence.

The exchange services usually include houses in all parts of the country. As a rule, resort areas are the most popular and it is important to plan early if you want a particularly choice location.

Fees vary, but generally start at about $15. Deadlines for directory listing also vary; most services prepare two directories — one around the start of the year and another in the spring.

The Vacation Exchange Club Inc. of New York City — which was founded in 1960 and claims to be the oldest house-swapping service in the country — has a Dec. 17 deadline for its directory which comes out in February and a Feb. 15 deadline for the issue which comes out in April. The basic fee is $15 and the club expects to have 4,500 to 5,000 listings in the 1980 directories.

Inquire Inc., a Bedford Hills, N.Y., exchange service founded in 1975, sets a Nov. 15 deadline for the main directory; a supplementary issue, published in the spring, has a March 1 deadline. Inquire charges start at $30.

House-swapping is not without its drawbacks. The exchange services generally offer no guarantee of satisfaction. You may not like the idea of strangers using your possessions. The house you select may not turn out to be all you thought it was. And living in a house or apartment inevitably involves more work than checking into a hotel and ringing for room service.

There are several things you can do to lessen your chances of disappointment. Check insurance policies to see if you need additional protection to cover a stranger staying in your home or driving your car. Agree beforehand on replacement of broken items and on payment of telephone and utility bills. If a car is part of the deal, spell out details of who will pay for gasoline and oil, etc.

The address of the Vacation Exchange Club is 350 Broadway, New York, N.Y., 10013. Inquire is at 35 Adams St., Bedford Hills, N.Y., 10507.

Death of Union County Woman Raises Weekend Traffic Toll To Five

By The Associated Press

The death of a Union County woman Sunday raised the state's weekend highway death toll to five, state police said.

State police said the Kentucky highway fatality toll for the year stood at 530 early today, compared with 501 through the same period last year.

Cathrine J. Christian, 27, was critically injured early Sunday when her car struck a bridge on Interstate 75 near Winchester Road east of Lexington, officers said. She died in a Lexington hospital.

A Chicago man was killed early Saturday and accidents Friday night claimed three lives, state police said.

Frank R. Latorie, 23, of Chicago died when his car left Kentucky 699 in Leslie County, two miles west of Smilax, police said.

Nancy Deloris Shepard, 30, of Midway, and her 2-year-old daughter Nancy Anna Shepard died in a single-vehicle accident a half mile west of Midway when their auto left U.S. 62 and struck a pole, police said.

Richard A. King, 23, of Winfield, Tenn., died Friday night when his car ran off U.S. 27 in McCreary County, 6.3 miles south of Whitley City, officers reported.

Fraley Garner's Fourth Shrine Tourney Crown

Rex Fraley fired an even-par round of 72 to notch his fourth Shriners Golf Tournament title yesterday at the Murray Country Club.

His 145 total was three strokes better than runnerup Howard Boone and four better than that of Leon Redman, whose 88 yesterday marked the low round of the event.

The tourney was marred by miserable weather Saturday that soaked the course and sent the scores skyrocketing. Fraley's opening 73 had established a two-shot lead over Boone, Jerry Caldwell, Tom Rogers and Tommy Fike.

Fraley, a Clarksville, Tenn., native who lost in a playoff to Paducahan Jimmy Brown last year in this event, played the back side of the Murray Country Club course in 34, two-under-par, with birdies on the par-4 12th hole, the 500-yard par-5 14th and the 560-yard par-5 16th. He slumped to a 38 on the front, however, with bogeys on No. 2 and 9.

John White shot a 76 to edge Johnny McCage for first-flight honors with a 158 total. Roy Eaton's 79 completed a two-day 166 to nip Bobby Freeman by a shot for the second flight title.

Jody McCort turned in an 83 for a 174 that beat Loney Fraley by a stroke for the third flight championship. Dan Brady and Virgil Clark tied with 181's in the fourth flight, but Brady won with a countback of scorecards.

Jim Karns' 90 produced his 187 total and gave him the fifth-flight title over Bruce Wilson (188) and Scott Seiber (189), while Leroy McCully won a countback against Darrell Treas for the sixth flight title with his 198.

No one managed a hole-in-one on the seventh hole, which would have netted a new car being offered by Carroll Volkswagen, but Bill Miller did score an ace on the par-3 second hole yesterday.

All the Shrine tournament profits are annually donated to the Crippled Children's Hospital.

Connors Shrugs Stubborn Vilas, Takes Clay Title

By HANK LOWENKRON
AP Sports Writer

INDIANAPOLIS — Jimmy Connors and Chris Evert Lloyd have matured from their days as teen-age tennis stars, but they proved they're still masters on clay surfaces by capturing singles championships in the $275,000 U.S. Open Clay Court tournament.

Connors, the No. 1 seed, captured his fourth Clay Court title Sunday, defeating Argentina's Guillermo Vilas 6-1, 2-6, 6-4 in a nationally televised match.

On Saturday, Lloyd overcame old rival Evonne Goolagong Cawley 6-4, 6-3 for her fifth Clay Court championship.

And both figured the experience will give them momentum as they look ahead to the U.S. Open in New York.

"My game has been a little rocky because I had other things on my mind," said Connors, whose wife Patti gave birth to the couple's first child two weeks ago. "It's pretty hard to have a baby and just get him out of your mind."

"My tennis is fine now," he said. "However, my mind still wanders a little. My mom is helping me with everything. I'm lucky enough to have someone interested in me and my game."

"It's like I've got three people behind me. I've got a mom, a coach and a friend," he said in describing his relationship with his mother, Gloria.

"It's not getting easier," said Connors, who won here previously in 1974, 1976 and 1978. "The depth in men's tennis is incredible. And this is one of the bigger tournaments. It draws an outstanding international field and it takes great tennis to win."

Connors said he would play one more tournament, in Stowe, Vt., before the U.S. Open Aug. 27-Sept. 9.

Lloyd, who won here four consecutive years starting in 1972, also mentioned the stronger competition.

"I can't just show up and claim victory. I have to work for it, and it isn't getting easier," said Lloyd, who had not played here since 1975 because of World Team Tennis commitments.

John McEnroe teamed with Gene Mayer to capture the men's doubles 6-4, 7-6 over Czechoslovakia's Jan Kodeš and Tomaz Smid. Kathy Jordan and Anne Smith captured the women's doubles title 6-1, 6-0 over Penny Johnson and Paula Smith.

Connors said the secret to continued success is being able to remain motivated after so many years of competition.

"After five or six years of doing that, you've got to have something else to keep you pumping. Some people never find it," he said.

Connors, who earned $25,000 with his victory and moved to within 200 points of Grand Prix leader Bjorn Borg, said the only change he wants to make in his game between now and the Open is to "hit the ball maybe a little cleaner at times."

Connors, Lloyd and other players competed in the new $8 million Indianapolis Sports Center, where the tournament was held for the first time.

On Saturday, the International Tennis Association announced that it had elevated the status of the Clay Court tournament to a major international event.

Gottfried Easily Topples Dibbs

By the Associated Press
DUBLIN, Ohio — Bryan Gottfried scored an easy 6-3, 6-0 over top-seeded Eddie Dibbs to win a $75,000 Grand Prix Tennis Tournament at Muirfield Village.

Gottfried, a semifinalist last year and finalist the year before, allowed Dibbs only nine points in the entire second set.

The Super Saver: Sutter Rescues Cubs From St. Louis

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Sports Writer

Where Bruce Sutter is concerned, baseball is a game of one-upmanship — and no one plays it better than the Chicago Cub relief specialist.

"I just try to get ahead (of the hitter) and keep the ball down," says Sutter, explaining his stunning success this year.

The National League's top reliever came on strong again Sunday, gaining his 28th save as the Cubs defeated the Cardinals 5-3. The tough right-hander got the last two outs to halt a St. Louis rally, striking out George Hendrick on an 0-2 pitch to end the game.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

In other NL games, San Francisco whipped Los Angeles 4-1, Cincinnati beat Atlanta 9-2 in the first game of a doubleheader before losing the second 5-4 and Atlanta nipped Houston 3-2. Rain postponed a doubleheader between Montreal and New York and a contest between Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

Giants 4, Dodgers 1 — San Francisco scored two runs when Dodgers rookie right fielder Mickey Hatcher dropped a two-out fly ball in the seventh inning and went on to beat Los Angeles behind Vida Blue's four-hitter.

Johnnie LeMaster opened the Giants seventh with an infield hit and moved to second on a sacrifice fly by Mike Sadek.

Blue, 10-9, struck out and Bill North walked before Rob Andrews hit a high fly to right. Hatcher, apparently having trouble as he looked into the sun, backpedaled and got under the ball but it popped out of his glove, allowing the Giants to break a 1-1 tie. Andrews reached second on the error and scored the third unearned run of the inning on Jack Clark's single.

Reds 9-4, Padres 2-5 — Ray Knight drove in three runs and Tom Seaver won his ninth straight decision as Cincinnati beat San Diego in the first game of their doubleheader. Seaver, 11-5, improved his lifetime record against San Diego to 24-7 with a seven-hitter.

Jerry Turner's pinch-hit single in the seventh inning drove in the winning run as San Diego came back to win the second game. Turner's first pinch hit after 15 unsuccessful tries capped a two-run rally for the Padres.

Braves 3, Astros 2 — Atlanta right-hander Phil Niekro won his 15th game of the season and recorded the 200th complete-game performance of his career, scattering eight hits. Barry Bonnell belted three hits for the Braves, including his ninth homer of the year.

Koosman Tosses 10-Hit Shutout As Twins Squeak

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
AP Sports Writer

The dictionary defines a troubleshooter as someone who locates the causes of trouble and makes needed repairs. Meet Jerry Koosman, who is usually the cause of his own trouble but generally knows how to fix it.

"If I pitched as hard out of trouble, I probably wouldn't go nine," the veteran left-hander said Sunday after hurling a 10-hit shutout — the major league record for a nine-inning shutout is 14 hits — as the Minnesota Twins edged the Oakland A's 1-0. "When I get into trouble I'm more of a power pitcher. When I'm out of trouble I go more with control."

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Koosman, 14-10, had plenty of control Sunday in pitching his first American League shutout. He didn't walk anyone, but nine Oakland singles and a double, plus an error by right fielder Hosken Powell, kept him in hot water most of the time.

Chicago's Ross Baumgarten fired a two-hitter as the White Sox blanked the Toronto Blue Jays 7-0 before dropping the nightcap 7-5, and Craig Chamberlain spun a six-hitter in his major league debut as the Kansas City Royals thumped the Detroit Tigers 7-1. Elsewhere, the California Angels edged the Seattle Mariners 4-3 and the Cleveland Indians downed the Texas Rangers 6-3 while the New York-Baltimore doubleheader and the Milwaukee-Boston single game were rained out.

Angels 4, Mariners 3 — Rod Carew's bases-loaded single drove in the tying and winning runs and capped a four-run ninth-inning California rally. Held to seven hits by Rob Dressler over the first eight innings, the Angels chased the Seattle starter when Don Baylor and Willie Aikens opened the ninth with singles.

Royals 7, Tigers 1 — The Royals backed Chamberlain, a hard-throwing 22-year-old right-hander, with home runs by Al Cowens, Amos Otis and Frank White. It was the fifth victory in a row and 11th in 14 games for the defending champion Royals, who trail California by five games.

Indians 6, Rangers 3 — Mike Hargrove drove in three runs with a home run and a double against his former team and Ron Hassey also homered as Cleveland defeated Texas behind the six-hit pitching of Dan Spillner and Sid Monge. Cleveland took a 5-0 lead and chased loser Steve Comer in the third inning.

White Sox 7-5, Blue Jays 0-7 — After Baumgarten's masterpiece in the opener, John Mayberry drove in two runs with a pair of singles and scored three times to earn the Blue Jays a split.

Baumgarten gave up a bunt single to Bob Bailor in the first inning and a two-out triple to Al Woods in the seventh. He walked three and struck out five. Meanwhile, Jim Morrison drove in two runs with a homer and a sacrifice fly and Chet Lemon collected three doubles. Morrison's leadoff homer in the first inning was all the support Baumgarten needed.

The Bear Counting On Women, Cowboys To Bolster Alabama

By the Associated Press
TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Coach Bear Bryant is counting on the women and the drugstore cowboys to help spur his Alabama football team to a successful defense of its national championship this fall.

"If we have any strength, and I think we do, I believe it will be in the fact that our players believe they can win," said Bryant, who has more victories than any active coach, 284.

Laker Freshman Practice To Begin

Calloway County High School freshmen wishing to participate in football should report to the high school Wednesday night from 4:30 to 7 p.m. for equipment handout, a school official announced today.

Freshmen practice will begin Thursday at 5 p.m.

"They should know now that the rewards are much better for winning the national championship."

"That little girlfriend or wife squeezes the hand a little differently and people are nicer when you go to the drugstore."

Alabama will start its quest for a fifth national title in Bryant's 22 years at the helm when it opens in a televised game at Georgia Tech Sept. 8.

"Our schedule is not as tough as it was last year, I hope," Bryant said. "On the other hand the games that are more difficult to get ready for are those the fans think you're going to win."

The Tide turned back such powers as Nebraska, Missouri and Washington, but lost to Southern Cal, before knocking off No. 1 Penn State 14-7 in the Sugar Bowl for its 1978 title.

In addition to games against six fellow members of the Southeastern Conference, which Alabama has owned in recent years, the Tide meets Tech, Baylor, Wichita State, Virginia Tech and Miami of Florida.

Quarterback Jeff Rutledge has graduated and his duties fall on Steadman Shealy, a quick-footed operator of the wishbone until he underwent surgery two springs ago. Shealy played some last fall and has been working hard to strengthen his knee.

"Offensively we should be strong if a lack of speed doesn't kill us," Bryant said.

Hartford Open Marred By Rain

By the Associated Press
WETHERSFIELD, Conn. — The relentless rain is proving costly at the $300,000 Sammy Davis Jr.-Greater Hartford Open.

"It means I lose out on $1,500," said Joe Inman about Sunday's rainout.

Inman and several other players in the 68-man field will miss pro-am events for which they would have been paid because of the GHO postponement.

The final 36 holes of the tourney at the par-71, 6,534-yard Wethersfield Country Club were rained out Sunday. The final two rounds are scheduled to be played today.

"I'll just have to shoot a good round tomorrow to make it up," said Inman, who at 7-under-par 135 is in a seven-way tie for fourth place. Top prize in the GHO is $54,000 if all 72 holes are completed.

The leader in the tourney at 11-under-par 131 is J.C. Snead, who finished his second round of play before the rain began. One stroke behind Snead was Mark Hayes, while Mike Brannan was third at 8-under-par 134.

The rain, which began Friday afternoon and continued throughout Saturday,

LPGA

JERICHO, N.Y. — Beth Daniel will have to wait an extra day before breaking out the champagne.

Heavy rains, which caused a 30-minute delay early in the morning, eventually caused the final round of the 72-hole $100,000 LPGA tournament to be postponed Sunday after a second delay that lasted 45 minutes.

Only 15 of the 72 players had completed their round over the 6,460-yard layout at the Meadow Brook Club, and Daniel will be looking for the first victory of her rookie season today.

Daniel started Sunday in a three-way deadlock for first at 218 with defending champion Judy Rankin and LPGA titlist Donna Caponi Young. And that's just where she wound up, even though she took a fourstroke lead with three birdies and a pair of pars through the first five holes of the final round.

The maturing Seattle offense, along with Carl Eller's performance in his first game with the Seahawks, may have combined to rid Coach Jack Patera's club permanently of their "expansion" label.

"I thought the Seahawks were a good team last year and I think they'll be a better team this year," observed Eller, who had left training camp after only one workout to sort out his business affairs and then returned with a flourish Sunday night.

The 38-year-old former Minnesota Viking, batted a Glenn Carano pass into the arms of teammate Kerry Justin, who returned the interception 56 yards for the touchdown that secured the Seahawks' 27-17 National Football League preseason victory over the Dallas Cowboys.

"I feel fine. I didn't have a lot of assignments, only the pass rush," said Eller, who didn't surprise his coach with his play.

"No. 11's not bad, is he," said Patera, the former defensive line coach in Minnesota who has been reunited with Eller in Seattle. "Having (nine-year veteran defensive end Bill) Gregory and Eller put the pressure on (Dallas) got the young boys going."

In other NFL preseason contests Sunday, the New York Jets downed Houston 26-14 and Los Angeles beat New England 15-3.

On Saturday, San Diego blanked Minnesota 19-0, Miami outdueled Tampa Bay 13-7, Oakland mauled San Francisco 41-10, Cleveland romped over Baltimore 24-3, Pittsburgh intercepted the New York Giants 10-3, Chicago defeated New Orleans 13-6, Detroit beat Buffalo 34-13, Denver outlasted Washington 13-6 and Cincinnati toppled Green Bay 20-5.

The Seahawks, who rolled up 194 yards on the ground and held the Cowboys to only 61 net yards rushing, have beaten two NFL division champions, with a third — the Rams — coming up Saturday night.

Rams 15, Patriots 3 — Quarterback Pat Haden hooked up with Rod Phillips for an 18-yard touchdown and Vince Ferrigamo found Preston Dennard with a 16-yard scoring pass as Los Angeles dealt New England its first defeat in their last nine preseason games before a rain-soaked, wind-blown Schaefer Stadium crowd of 26,324.

The Patriots, who surrendered a safety in the first quarter when the Rams' Elvis Peacock blocked a Mike Patrick punt out of the end zone, got only a 31-yard field goal from David Posey in the second period.

Jets 26, Oilers 14 — Kevin Bell returned a Houston punt blocked by teammate Donald Dykes and raced 21 yards for a touchdown, and Pat Leahy booted field goals of 19, 33, 38 and 52 yards respectively to pace New York's first win in two preseason games.

Earl Campbell rushed for touchdowns of 1 and 9 yards for the Oilers, who lost their 14-13 halftime lead when Scott Dierking carried three yards for a New York touchdown, capping a drive executed by quarterback Matt Robinson who completed three of five passes in the game for 73 yards.

Final Hours Spent With Friends, Victim Requests

MIAMI (AP) — Doctors said Donald Brooks — burned over 96 percent of his body — would be dead in a matter of hours. So Brooks refused pain killers and called his friends together to say goodbye.

Brooks, 33, spent his final hours preparing a will, writing letters to loved ones and making calls to friends. He left instructions for burial and asked 14 friends to his bedside.

He had no family to call — he never knew his father, and his mother died 11 years ago.

"Donnie never panicked," said Vincent Mancuso, 31, one of his friends. "He handled it like he handled everything else in his life."

"They told him flat out he wasn't gonna make it. They let us all come right in," said Wayne Bennett. "They knew he wanted to see everybody he could see while he could still talk to them."

Brooks refused medication, choosing to remain awake and alert. Doctors said damage to his seared tissues had been dulled because the burns had destroyed nerve endings.

"He was very aware, very realistic, very sincere," said Dr. C. Gillon Ward, chief of the Jackson Memorial Hospital burn unit, where Brooks died. "He was trying to do the things which he knew were the last things he would be doing."

Brooks, a welder from Riviera Beach, Fla., began his journey toward death when he and his girlfriend, Kathy Swedenborg, set sail for the Bahamas in the motorized 35-foot sailboat that was their home.

They were in the Bahamas on Friday when Miss Swedenborg, a 23-year-old waitress, arose early to make coffee. She turned off the stove, but apparently forgot to shut off the propane gas.

Hours later — at 5 a.m. — she awoke Brooks, saying she smelled gas. All at once, the boat exploded. Brooks tried to save the woman, but she fell back into the flames and perished.

At about midnight Friday, Brooks went into shock from loss of fluids, and died of heart failure.

"He knew he was going to die. The room was full. We were watching his heart beat on a monitor," said Bennett.

"It beat faster and faster, then it slowed and dropped off. All of a sudden the lines straightened out and he was dead. I was beside myself. Nobody said anything."

Among Brooks' final requests was to be buried near Kathy — but her body, lost when the sailboat sank, has not been found.

"If we can't find her and bring her back," said Bennett, "we may have to take him there."

LIBRARY CATALOG
NEW YORK (AP) — A program to reproduce photographically the New York Public Library's 9-million-card public catalog is being undertaken by the library and Boston Publisher G.K. Hall & Co.

A spokesman says that in book form the printed catalog will consist of some 800 10-inch by 14-inch volumes. A microfilm edition also is planned.

Your Individual Horoscope

FOR TUESDAY, AUGUST 14, 1979

for career success. Too much self-preoccupation turns off superiors.

VIRGO
(Aug. 23 to Sept. 22) ♍
Trust hunches re domestic matters. In dealing with those at a distance, be skeptical. The rosy picture someone paints is not accurate.

LIBRA
(Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) ♎
Inspiring talks with a friend about work, but avoid risky investment plans at their suggestion. It could be the blind leading the blind.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) ♏
A close one may not come through with promised help. Watch out for false impressions re a career matter. Avoid premature celebrations.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) ♐
It may be too soon to act on a travel plan. Work responsibilities may conflict with pleasurable alternatives. Watch diet-health.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 22 to Jan. 19) ♑
Something you don't know about affects the course of true love. Despite superficial niceties, someone may not be quite sincere.

AQUARIUS

(Jan. 20 to Feb. 18) ♒
A gesture of help would be nice, but close ones may demand attention. A family member may be in for a let down, but don't you discourage them.

PISCES
(Feb. 19 to Mar. 20) ♓
A plan of yours may be too idealistic to launch under today's influences. Don't let others dampen enthusiasm. Be a bit closemouthed.

YOU BORN TODAY thrive on the unusual and do not belong in a routine job. You can buy and sell, are interested in travel, and can make an original contribution in your chosen field. You have a knack for making money and taking chances, though your best success comes through a more disciplined approach to career matters.

Religion, science, literature, law, teaching, psychology, brokerage, and engineering are some of the fields in which you'll find happiness. The theatre and medicine may also appeal to you. Birthdate of: Kraft-Ebbing, neurologist; Alice Ghostley, actress; and John Galsworthy, author.

Study Shows Most Rape Victims Are Aged 16-24

WASHINGTON (AP) — Women aged 16 to 24 run the greatest risk of being the victims of rape, says a federal study released today. It also says the typical victim is poor and unmarried.

The study, commissioned by the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, was based on assaults in 26 cities. Among its findings:

—The hours between 6 p.m. and midnight are the most dangerous.

—Most assaults occur in open public areas such as streets or parks.

—Resisting a rapist often means the sexual assault is thwarted but the victim is more likely to suffer other injuries.

—Most attacks are by strangers and, according to the victims, attackers generally appear to be over 21 years of age.

which are often unknown to parents, teachers, and even the children themselves. Both seminars will include a discussion of "I.Q." and the measures parents may take to raise their children's overall "intelligence level."

New Commissioner Youngest And First

FRANKFORT — At first glance, the new deputy agriculture commissioner is similar to many college graduates who chose a state government position as a career beginning.

The new commissioner grew up on a 800-acre Western Kentucky farm, graduated from the University in 1976 with a degree in nutrition, and now works for the Kentucky Department of Agriculture.

But Paula Crafton is distinct for two reasons. At the age of 25 she is the youngest deputy agriculture commissioner in Kentucky history, and the only woman to hold that office.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER — Paula Crafton is the state's youngest deputy Department of Agriculture commissioner and the only woman to hold that office. Crafton, 25, is a native of Western Kentucky.

College in Greenville, Tenn. He is married and has two children. Dr. Fuhrmann is also an Area Manager with World Book Encyclopedia Company.

These seminars and similar seminars which may be offered later will stress learning theory and the practical steps that thoughtful parents may take to help their children in school. A free and open discussion of problems parents share in helping to shape their children's education will also be encouraged. "All parents and teachers are invited to attend the meetings on Wednesday, Aug. 15, at 10 a.m. and again at 3 p.m.," stated Margaret Trevathan, Librarian.

She quotes agricultural marketing and production figures as easily as most people recite their telephone numbers and credits her farming background as the basis for her knowledge.

"Although I don't regret my (nutrition) major, I admit I kept sneaking off to the agricultural college to take classes," she said. "My best experience is the work I did on my father's farm in Robards. Because of that, I realize the farmer's biggest gamble is the weather and market conditions."

Crafton pointed out that the investment farmers must make is sizable and because of the capital involved fewer people are staying in agriculture.

One of her particular areas of interest is agricultural promotion. As deputy commissioner, she has been monitoring the marketing of Kentucky farm products and she sees a need for increased recognition for what is produced in-state.

"I don't think Kentuckians know what they have," she said. "We need to tout our own home more."

Two Kentucky products, country ham and cheese, have unlimited potential in the national market, Crafton said.

Two Prisoners Recaptured Today

BARDSTOWN, Ky. (AP) — Two prisoners of the Nelson County Jail who fled Sunday night were recaptured Monday morning, according to sheriff C.E. Allen.

"We got a tip and staged a raid on a house here in Bardstown," Allen said. "We found them hiding in the basement behind the coal bin."

Allen said the escapees, Timothy Culver, 20, and Earl Nalley, 29, offered no resistance. They will be charged with first-degree escape, according to local authorities.

Culver, a local man being held on charges of receiving stolen property, and Nalley, a Lexington resident charged with public intoxication, fled as Mary Conder, the jailer's wife, was releasing another prisoner.

...THE NEWS IN BRIEF...

INTERNATIONAL
NEW DELHI, India (AP) — All-India Radio reported today that about 1,000 persons were killed following the collapse of a dam in western India that unleashed a wall of water nearly 20 feet high on the town of Morvi and buried it in mud.

Earlier a former mayor of the town said he feared the death toll would run as high as 5,000. That would have made it the world's worst dam disaster, more than double the previous record toll of 2,300 at Belluno, in northeast Italy, in 1962.

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Vietnamese officials told visiting U.S. congressmen they plan to let 10,000 refugees leave legally each month to stop the mass exodus, the head of the congressional group reported after arriving in Bangkok Sunday.

Rep. Lester Wolff, D-N.Y., told Thai Prime Minister Kriangsak Chomanan the Vietnamese feel that unless they can arrange such an emigration program, it will be impossible to stem the flow of refugees.

NATIONAL

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Backed by riot-equipped police and packing a pistol on his hip, Mayor Emory Folmar kept his pledge that Ku Klux Klansmen would not threaten their white power march through his city without a parade permit.

Klansmen began the 50-mile march Thursday in Selma, walking the route of an historic civil rights protest with vows to go "armed to the hilt," and to destroy any challenging enemy.

DALLAS (AP) — Attorney Ellis Rubin, sometimes called a maverick by his fellow barristers, is forming an organization to make filing malpractice suits a risky business — for lawyers.

Rubin says doctors and lawyers subject to malpractice suits ought to be able to counter the attorneys who represent their accusers. So he organized Lawyers for Protecting People from Malicious and Unjustified Lawsuits, Inc.

WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional economists, predicting inflation likely will cool to 6.2 percent a year in the 1980s, say the economy's central problem is lagging productivity.

The Joint Economic Committee's unanimous midyear report, issued Sunday, says revival of the economy will require increased productivity through better training of disadvantaged workers and tax incentives for savings and investment.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The hospital industry has filed suit to block new federal rules designed to guarantee medical treatment for racial minorities and the poor.

The industry says the regulations create unnecessary, costly burdens for hospitals already short of money and overloaded with paperwork.

Drug Causes Man To Bite Into Arms

CHICAGO (AP) — A 29-year-old man bit his forearms almost to the bone after smoking a marijuana cigarette laced with the numbing drug known as angel dust, a Texas doctor says.

And Dr. Vernon Eugene Grove Jr., a private practitioner in Austin, Texas, says that may be an argument against legalization of marijuana.

In a report published in the Aug. 17 issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association, Grove said the patient experienced "terrifying auditory hallucinations" telling him that his hands had offended him and commanding him to punish himself by biting.

Because of the disassociation caused by the drug, Grove wrote, the man "bit his forearms almost to the bone and felt no discomfort. A nauseating, odoriferous wound infection manifested, which the patient ignored. Excruciating pain developed only later."

Angel dust, phenylcyclidine hydrochloride or PCP, has anesthetic effects and also is known as horse tranquilizer for its use in veterinary medicine, Grove said. It can produce violence or self-injury while anesthetizing a person who has taken it.

Grove said use of the drug, which is being used as an additive to marijuana, also can cause depression and a state resembling schizophrenia, as well as physical reactions such as convulsions, heart stimulation, severe hypertension and cerebral hemorrhaging.

"Lots of folks will start with marijuana and want something stronger," Grove said in a telephone interview. "It leads very directly to the use of angel dust in many patients I have worked with and talked to."

Greenup Finances Remain Unchanged

GREENUP, Ky. (AP) — Greenup's financial condition remains unchanged after the city council failed at a weekend meeting to reinact the city's automobile tax, which was removed several months ago.

Mayor Jimmy Doran said Greenup now has $6,200 in debts and less than $78 to pay them with.

Doran said in past years funds produced with a city sticker had provided enough money for Greenup to keep up with its bills.
